The Bluffton University Camerata Singers will be in concert at Kidron Mennonite Church this Sunday, October 18, 7:00 p.m.

Camerata Singers is a select 29-member choir conducted by Dr. Mark J. Suderman, professor of music and director of choral activities. Allison Ringold, adjunct piano instructor, is the group's accompanist. The Bluffton Brass Society will also perform, as well as play with the choir on some pieces. The 8-member ensemble is coached by Dr. Jeffrey D. Boehm, professor of music.

This year's theme is "Awake: Sing and Make Music." The choral selections come from a variety of textual and musical sources, including major works, hymn tunes, spirituals, and pieces from various historical periods.

Something for Seniors at The Pier on October 27. Everyone enjoys a good story, and this month Trent Metcalf, who is a storyteller, will entertain with stories and poems about the virtues of marriage, home, and family. We will also be having a lunch following the program. This is a fun time for conversation and getting to know each other better.
