Litany of Commissioning for Bob and Enid Schloneger

Conference Minister: The Mennonite Church has embraced the concept of the believers' church and priesthood of all believers from the beginning. When a person is baptized, he or she becomes a member in ministry with others. The church calls men and women for special roles in leadership within the congregation, persons recognized for their spiritual gifts and training to assist all of us in being ministers with each other and in the community. Today this congregation celebrates and commissions Bob and Enid Schloneger as interim pastors to assist you and lead you in ministry.

Church Chair: Three weeks ago we had the privilege to celebrate the closing of the ministry of Darrell Ediger. Today we welcome Bob and Enid, as our interim pastors.

Conference Minister: Bob and Enid, do you believe that this call to serve as interim pastors here at Salem Mennonite Church is led of God's Spirit and that your response to the call is an act of faithfulness to God's leading?

Interim Pastors' Response: Through our prayers and counsel from conversation and affirmation with the Spiritual Council, we have sensed God's call for us to unite with you in ministry.

Conference Minister: Will you love, serve and pray for these people of God, nourishing them with the Word and leading them forward during this time of change?

Interim Pastors' Response: Through God's grace we will.

Church Chair: Will you lead us in making known the love of God through preaching the Word and tending to our spiritual growth? Will you live in openness with your sisters and brothers of this congregation reaching out to us in acceptance and love?

Interim Pastor's Response: We will, guided by God's grace.

Conference Minister: As individuals and as a congregation, do you promise your support of Bob and Enid and will you be partners with them in the ministry of the church? Will you embrace their gifts and ministry and free them to lead? Will you promise to support them with your prayers and your cooperation? If so, you may answer, "By God's grace, we will!"

Congregation's Response: "By God's grace, we will!"

Conference Minister: Upon hearing your affirmation, Enid and Bob, and the promises of the congregation, I commission you as Interim Pastors and Ministers of the Gospel of Jesus Christ for Salem Mennonite Church.

Conference Minister, Church Chair and Congregation Together: We welcome you as Interim Pastors and join you in the ministry of the gospel in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Conference Minister: Please join me in a prayer of commissioning.
