The flowers this morning are in celebration of Barbara Wilson's birthday on Monday, October 25. Happy Birthday, Barb!

Thank you so much for the money gift you gave to us this past Sunday. You are a loving and affirming fellowship. We know any pastor who comes in the future will be fortunate because of the love and encouragement you so freely give. God bless you.

A hearty "Thank You" to all the men that showed up last Saturday to cut standing and dead trees at my farm. It was a tremendous job well done and greatly appreciated. Also a "Thank You" to Luke and Steph Ediger for planning and organizing the day including the evening camp fire and hot dog roast. It was a great time and a wonderful gathering of my church family.

John

Thanks for your prayers and cards during and after Greg's illness. After receiving so many of your cards, Greg said that this must be why I want to do the "churchy" thing. I believe it was one reason that Greg finally let go of all the things that he questioned and didn't understand and let God's peace fill him. Thank you, Salem, for being willing to do the "churchy" thing.

The Thanksgiving live auction is just 33 days away. That is plenty of time to start and finish a project for the auction. We would ask Sunday School classes - Bible Study - small groups - youth groups and each one of you to contribute to the auction.

Special to the auction this year is a large album of baseball cards, all Cleveland Indians 1957 - 1994.

The display in the foyer will be set up Saturday, October 30. We welcome you to bring your items for display. Let's make this a record sale in 2010. Any questions, see Janet Sprunger, Barb Sprunger or Kathy Schlabach.
